The U.S. House of Representatives Unanimously Condemns China's Abuse of Falun Gong Practitioners

On July 24, 2002, the U.S. House of Representatives passed House Concurrent Resolution 188 by a unanimous vote of 420 to 0. This resolution was initiated by Florida Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen, the chair of the International Operations and Human Rights Committee, and sponsored by more than 100 members of Congress.

The resolution addresses the scope and breadth of the persecution in China as well as the illicit activities carried out by agents of the Chinese regime in the U.S. in their attempt to extend the persecution of Falun Gong to America. Excerpts from the resolution follow. For the full text of H. Con. Res. 188*, go to* www.house.gov *and enter Falun Gong as a topic search. Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen: "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men and women to do nothing. Therefore, I call on my colleagues to render their support to the Falun Gong..."

Excerpts of H. Con. Res. 188:

"...Falun Gong is a peaceful and nonviolent form of personal belief and practice with millions of adherents in the People's Republic of China and elsewhere;"

"...Jiang Zemin's regime has created notorious government '610' offices throughout the People's Republic of China with the special task of overseeing the persecution of Falun Gong members through organized brainwashing, torture, and murder;"

"...Propaganda from state-controlled media in the People's Republic of China has inundated the public in an attempt to breed hatred and discrimination; …Known deaths from torture has reached 422 so far; tens of thousands have been tortured while confined in labor camps, prisons, and mental hospitals, and hundreds of thousands have been forced to attend brainwashing classes."

Resolved by the House of Representatives

Congresswoman Lynn Woolsey

Congressman Christopher Smith
