

Western Practitioners Forcibly Arrested for Their Peaceful Appeal on Tiananmen Square to Stop the Persecution

Daily News Photo Report (II): China's Police Violently Arrest Canadian Young Man. (AP photo, 11/20/2001)

Several eye-witnesses described the arrests of the Western Falun Gong practitioners as being "very violent." The police kicked, dragged, and threw these foreigners into police vehicles. (AP)

Jason Loftus spoke in Chinese, "Falun Dafa is good" and "the self-immolation incident was staged." One eye-witness said that seven to ten policemen surrounded him and stuck a cloth in his mouth to stop him from speaking. (AP)

Jason and Christine were hauled away by police officers on a busy Beijing street.