

Voices of Support From All Over the World

Canberra, Australia, district congressman and practitioners finished the last part of the SOS! walk together.

The state of New Jersey in the US condemned the persecution and commended the RescueWalk practitioners.

On July 18, 2001, Sweden Vice Prime Minister Lena Hjelm-Vallén, attended the press conference, condemning the Jiang Zemin regime's suppression of Falun Gong.

European Parliament member Marco Panella and practitioners in front of embassy.

Several thousand Falun Gong practitioners coming from various places in the United States, gathered in front of the Capitol building in Washington, D.C., to hold a press conference. Six senators including Senator Wellstone, many congresspersons, and some non-government organizations, participated in this assembly and gave speeches. They called for everyone in society, from all walks of life, to join together to stop the Chinese government's continuing suppression of Falun Gong.

Polish president told RescueWalk practitioner Maria Salzman that he supported Falun Gong and wished the SOS! Global RescueWalk success.

On October 10, 2001, politicians, academics, the clergy, and NGOs convened to discuss "China's State-Run Terrorism Against Falun Gong" at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C. and unanimously condemned the persecution.

The renowned human rights attorney, professor, and member of Canadian Parliament, Mr. Irwin Cotler, participated in the appeal in front of the Chinese embassy in Canada.

Dr. Abraham Halpern, a professor of psychiatry, severely condemned the Chinese government's abuse of psychiatric drugs to cruelly harm Falun Gong practitioners.